Living Daily by the Grace of God strike right at the heart of it. Humility says, "We need what You have, Lord." Our faith says, "We trust that what You have can be our portion and that what You offer is fully sufficient for our need." Bearing Fruit by Grace Now with that in mind, we shall look at living daily by the grace of God.

person who is single-minded about living for God, spiritual growth is found not to be easy nor development rapid. A double-minded person is likely to try it and give up. A change in heart cannot come from a double-minded approach to our daily living. James tells us that such a person should expect nothing from God.
