Helping Children Make Transitions between Activities

The particular focus of How Children Succeed was the role that a group of factors often referred to as noncognitive or "soft" skills qualities like perseverance, conscientiousness, self-control, and optimism play in the challenges poor children face and the strategies that might help them succeed. These qualities, which are also sometimes called character strengths, have in recent ...

Helping Children Succeed " What Works and Why

Play is the natural way in which children learn. It is the process through which children explore, investigate, recreate and come to understand their world.
