How a Realist Hero Rebuilt the Kingdom is an isekai light novel but, perhaps in part due to the unusual setting, it feels a lot fresher than many other stories of this kind. The main character Kazuya is an everyman gifted in one particular area but, instead of the isekai-usual combat skill, that area is governance.

The Realist-Romantic and Romantic-Realist: Visions of the Anti-Hero in Early Russian Literature. Abigail Graber '08. The debut of the modern Russian novel in the nineteenth century marked a departure in Russian literature from the numbing simplicity of the past: simplicity of plot, simplicity of style, and perhaps most significantly, simplicity of character and motivation.
