Thanks for the book list, I will take a look into some of them. What I find interesting is the last book by Marcus Aurelius. With all the new stuff invented through 2000 years and all the information we get now, there are still things that stay the same even after 2000 years and that a 2000 year old book can teach us.

Ryback: Auschwitz has been a particular target of Holocaust deniers -- in particular, the gas chamber in Auschwitz I, the original base camp a mile east of Birkenau. It was here that some of the first experiments with poison gas were undertaken in a converted air-raid shelter refitted with air-tight doors and special ducts for homicidal purposes.
