1 Preface This second edition of the 2001 Information literacy standards is entitled the Australian and New Zealand information literacy framework: principles, standards and practice to reflect the ways academics and librarians have used the first edition.

Australian and New Zealand Information Literacy Framework

Literacy is traditionally defined as the ability to read and write. In the modern world, this is one way of interpreting literacy. A more broad interpretation is literacy as knowledge and competence in a specific area. The concept of literacy has evolved in meaning.

Knowing how to effectively research and filter information is an essential life skill. I suggest 5 simple steps to teaching information literacy which are summarised in a poster.

Five Tips for Teaching Students How to Research and Filter

Reciprocal teaching refers to an instructional activity in which students become the teacher in small group reading sessions. Teachers model, then help students learn to guide group discussions using four strategies: summarizing, question generating, clarifying, and predicting.
